laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The bill to exempt unmanufactured cotton from internal tax was taken up. The question being on the motion of Mr. Conkling to postpone until the third Monday in Fabruary, the general subject was debated at some length, until the motion to adjourn by Mr. Ramsey, however, yielded to the suggestion of the chair, to allow the reading of a message from the President relative to General Howard.

After which Mr. Wilson said the Military Committee had referred to them the resolutions of thanks to Gene, Sheridan, Sickles and Schefield, for their administration of the laws in the South, and he moved to refer the communication to that committee.

If resorted to, it should be limited in its authority, and should leave all itool authorities and cityl tribunals. Tree and unobstructed until they prove their inefficiency or unwillingness to perform their duties, Martial law would give security, or comparatively so, to all classes without regard to race or color, or political opinions, and could be continued until Society was capable of protecting liseli, or until the State is returned to its full relation, with the Union; the application of martial law to one of these States would be a warning to all, and, if necessary, can be extended to others.
